Liberals Gather for Trudeau Stories

Leeds-Grenville Federal Liberal Association supporters filled the house of the Firehall Theatre in Gananoque last Thursday (Sept 17) for a special performance of Trudeau Stories, by Brooke Johnson. Rallying around their recently nominated candidate, Marjory Loveys, Liberal supporters gathered from near and far to attend the fund raiser. Of mention were the presence of Don Boudria former M.P. and Federal Cabinet Minister from Glengarry Prescott Russell and Jim Jordan, former MP for Leeds-Grenville.

Brooke Johnson wrote the play to portray her remarkable friendship with Pierre Elliot Trudeau in his post-Prime Minister years. The play is heart-warming and poignant, brought tears to the eyes of many in the audience and spawned memories from Trudeau's former friends and colleagues.

Following the performance, Marjory Loveys, hosted a question and answer session on the stage, and invited Ms. Johnson, former members of Parliament, and audience members to share some of their personal stories of Trudeau. Marjory thanked Ms. Johnson for preserving wonderful images highlighting the human side that was the man, Pierre Elliot Trudeau.
